Amigo Studios valuation

Price for Austin's 75%: ~$32k

The whole studio is worth about $43k. Pat already owns 25%, so the buyout is 75% of that.

	Low	Expected	High
Gear and furniture (not Pat's own podcast gear)	$12k	$16.5k	$16.5k
Use of the ~$60k build-out under a renewed lease	$7k	$10k	$12k
Website and booking system (we both keep resale rights)	$6.5k	$12k	$20.5k
Peerspace listings and reviews	$3k	$4k	$8.5k
Whole studio	$29k	$43k	$58k
Austin's 75%	$22k	$32k	$43k

Each column is its own total. Low assumes a 2–3 year lease renewal and resale value for the gear; High assumes a 5 year renewal and top-end credits.

Check against earnings: since July the studio has made about $2.2k a month before anyone is paid, which is about $27k a year. That supports roughly the Expected price. If both podcast-services clients stay long term, earnings could support up to about $55k for the 75%.

Assumptions

- The lease renews, and the landlord moves it into the buyers' name and releases Austin, Jeremiah and Beau.
- Cash, card balances and prepaid bookings settle separately at closing.
- This is a rough estimate from the Mercury records, not an appraisal.
